

Distributes Sales Tax to Municipalities

Illinois municipalities who have adopted sales tax ordinances are doing all right, according to figures released by State Treasurer Warren Wright.

The city or village sales tax is collected by the state and then passed on to the municipalities, after the state has deducted a fee for its service.

The figures just released by Wright show that a total of $1,803,095.23 has been disbursed to municipalities as their share of the tax collected in August.

There were 114 cities and villages whose sales tax ordinance was effective Aug. 1 for the levying of one-half cent on retailers within their corporate limits.

The largest amount paid out was to the city of Chicago—$1,351,482.35 and the smallest—$36.85—went to Hodgkins, a village in Cook county.

No Returns Here—Yet
Tinley Park, Mokena, Orland Park and other communities in this area that have adopted the half cent sales tax, were not included in this first list as their ordinances had not gone into effect Aug. 1.

State Treasurer Wright estimates that the August list represents "less than one third of the municipalities which have adopted sales tax ordinances since Aug. 1, and which will be included in rebates for ensuing months."

Harvey is on the August list and the report shows that it received $10,984.93. Dixmoor's share was $252.69. Evergreen Park benefited to the extent of $12,604.78; LaGrange, $11,615.33; Summit, $2,685.44; Wheaton, $5,881.19 and Western Springs, $1,620.62 to name a few others in this section.

Juliet is not on the list either as it did not adopt a sales tax ordinance until this fall.

The sales tax law was amended to include municipalities to give them additional revenue in order to meet increased operating expenses.

Increases Income
In many instances, it was pointed out, the amount derived from the tax on retail sales will not only meet increased operating expenses but will provide municipalities with substantial additional income.

The law limits the tax now to a two year period but political observers look for the act to be extended definitely when the legislature meets again. They point out that once a tax is imposed there is little likelihood that it is ever repealed. Governing bodies, like individuals, are always in need of money. It was pointed out, and no matter how much income grows it quickly becomes a "must" for minimum needs.

In making public today the list of cities and the amount each received for the first month under the new law, State Treasurer Wright said he was "keeping a promise that I have made time and again to the people—full information on the financial affairs of the state."

Will Inform Citizens

"I believe every citizen should know the amount of money involved under this new tax act, which eliminates the former requirement for a vote of the people before such a tax could be levied," the treasurer continued. "They should know not only the amount of the tax for their respective communities, but they should know what is being done with the money after it is rebated to the municipalities by the state treasurer."

Treasurer Wright said that he would continue to issue monthly reports on sales tax disbursements to cities.

Frankfort Police Officer Resigns

John Pease, police officer at Frankfort, has resigned and that community is now without the services of a paid policeman.

The question of filling the vacancy is to be taken up at the regular meeting of the village board next Monday night, according to Mayor George Sanger.

The mayor said that in his letter of resignation Mr. Pease stated that he planned to take another position.

In commenting on his resignation Pease said that he was quitting because he could not afford to keep up the job. He said that he was paid $280 a month by the village and out of that he had to buy oil and gas and keep up the repairs and maintenance on his car that he used for police business. He also had to furnish his own uniform and equipment. Pease added and as a result of the drain on his pay was compelled to work at an additional job.

Pease has been serving Frankfort as its police officer for the past 14 months. He said that he is considering several opportunities.

Doghouses are for The Birds! So Far As Zeke's Concerned

About three weeks ago the Elmore McArthur of 177th st., Tinley Park, decided to build a house for the family pet, Zeke, who is part collie and part shepherd. Everyone thought it was a "fine idea at the time, everyone that is, but Zeke.

Zeke was perfectly satisfied with things as they were. He had a house—the same one that served his folks, and what was good enough for them was good enough for him. But he was unable to voice his sentiments and so Zeke's house went up at some outlay of cash and considerable labor. When it was finished Zeke's family stood back and admired their work. They invited Zeke to admire it too. But Zeke merely sniffed. Then he turned around, marched to the kitchen door and demanded entry.

Efforts to coax him into his new domicile were fruitless. Zeke just wasn't having any. As far as he was concerned that dog house was for the birds. It was and is!

Sunday the McArthurs heard noises emanating from the dog house. It wasn't Zeke because Zeke was in his favorite spot in the family house. Investigation revealed that a hen pheasant had taken possession of the dog house. Yesterday it was still there. That is fine with Zeke, and serves to prove a point that he has always made—that a pheasant doesn't have too much sense anyway.

Old Man Winter May be Tough Guy This Year

Various predictions have been made over the past several months that the coming winter is to be a biter one. Whether such predictions will materialize is something that only the future will reveal, but if early snows and low temperatures are any signs then the forecast of a tough winter may not be too far off.

While there have been three or four snows to date the temperatures have been fairly moderate until last Sunday when a mass of arctic air that had been stalled up in Alaska and upper Canada for the past couple of weeks, came blasting down, engulfing most of the states between the Rockies and the Alleghenies, and extending down into the deep south.

Zero temperatures were reported early Monday morning in this area, and roads and streets where traffic was light were glazed with the ice that formed Sunday afternoon when the sudden drop in temperatures froze the melting snow.

The falling temperature also preserved the snow covering, and the fact the ground was covered with snow caused the temperature to drop lower than it would have had the ground been bare.

Main highways were clear for the most part by Monday noon but motorists are warned by state and county police that when the roads glaze, drivers should hold speeds down and keep their cars under control.

Spokesmen for the Chicago Motor club point out that ice patches are a constant threat to safety in this kind of weather. At winter seeing an open stretch of pavement before him may come to the conclusion that the highway is all clear and so he steps on the gas and then suddenly—before he can reduce speed—he encounters a patch of glaze. Too many times, under such circumstances, the car skids out of control and either plunges off the road or crosses over and collides with an approaching car with possible, fatal results.

Of course winter is not scheduled to arrive for another three weeks but one is not likely to get in much of an argument if he refers to the zero and near zero temperatures of this week as "wintry weather." It will serve until more winter gets here.

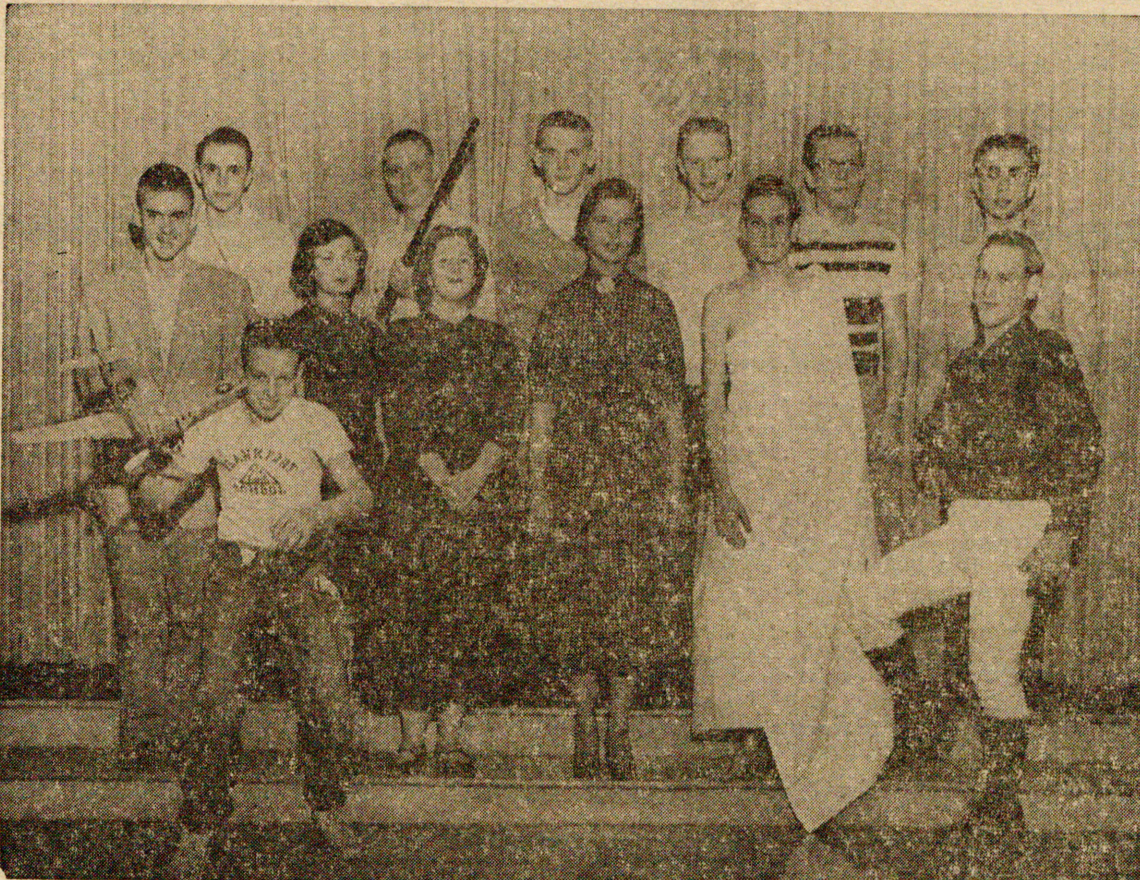

95 Youngsters Get 2nd Polio Shots At Mokena School

Ninety-five youngsters from the Mokena and Summit Hill St. Mary's schools received their second polio shots last week.

The serum which is hoped to give immunity against polio was administered by Dr. E. G. McMahon at the Mokena public school. This school served as a center for the program.

Three women assisted in the immunizing program, Patricia Rehan, county school nurse, Mrs. Hugo Neithammer, who is also registered nurse, and Mrs. Wesley Capel. The project was part of a county wide program. Similar programs are being carried out in other counties in the state.

Cast for Original Play at Lincoln-Way

An original play, written and produced by Lincoln-Way high school students deals with the zombie motif so there should be enough suspense and horror to cause pleasant shudders. No attempt will be made here to list the members of the cast with their stage identification. The names used here are those the young thespians answer to in class. They are, in front, Allan Mager; first row, (l. to r.) James Staley, Ruth Heimerdinger, Diane Ulrich, Marilyn Cooper, Robert Olson and John Weber; second row (l. to r.) James Cooper, Paul Landahl, William Heidrich, Don Korsgaard, Rudy Guzik and Fred Heitman.

Sanitation Expert Gives Various Methods of Treating Sewage

Some years ago Illinois began combatting stream pollution and the program is getting results, although there is still much to be done before it can be termed successful.

The vast sewage treatment works of the Chicago Sanitary district as well as similar plants—although on a much smaller scale—are in other areas and communities are a part of this program to end stream pollution.

That is why the state department of public health, of which the sanitary water board is a part, is cracking down on communities now without proper sewage disposal systems. For a long time the small communities have been disregarded, the state wanting to force action first in the larger places. But now that the larger communities are beginning to build their own treatment plants, or become a part of a sanitary district, the state is turning its attention now to the smaller communities.

Many of these places are showing rapid growth in population and this growth has emphasized the need of systems to collect and dispose of the sewage.

Tinley Park has been warned that it must do something about its sewer problem. New Lenox is considering the formation of a sanitary district. Mokena also is looking for a solution of its own sanitation needs, and Orland Park is preparing to improve and extend its water system.

Bloom township sanitary district takes care of the situation in the Chicago Heights area, including Park Forest, and the superintendent, J.E. Meers, has given considerable information of sewage treatment to groups in nearby communities.

He spoke on the subject in Tinley Park recently at a meeting fostered by the Lions Club and Chamber of Commerce.

Pollution, he explained, "is regarded as existing in water if, as a result of the discharge of any liquids or solids in the water, any of the following objectionable results occur:

1. Contamination of the public water supply.
2. Destruction of fish or other aquatic life.
3. Damage to farm animals or other livestock drinking the water.
4. Nuisance conditions an objectionable odors.
5. Impairment of recreational activities.
6. Damage to property and valuation of real estate.

Sewage, Meers went on, is divided into two categories—domestic and industrial.

"The conventional treatment of sewage involves three distinct major phases of treatment," Meers said, primary, secondary, and complete.

"Primary treatment of sewage is a physical process, the screening and sedimentation of solids.

"Secondary treatment of sewage is the processing of the clarified liquid to remove fine suspended solids and to oxidize and purify the dissolved organic matter.

"Complete treatment of sewage is a complete cycle of water usually attained by chlorination of the liquid discharged to the stream.

"There are many different methods of treating sewage such as: Septic tank, Imhoff tank, plain sedimentation, sludge digestion, intermittent sand filters, trickling filters and activated sludge process.

"However, many plants use a combination of these methods to obtain better results," Meers stated, and went on.

Students Write and Act Own Play— Even Build Stage

A mystery drama, written and produced by the Phi-Chem group of Lincoln-Way high school, is to be presented Saturday night, Dec. 3, at the school. Curtain time is 8 o'clock.

Not only have the students written the piece but they also have built the stage and the gettins. Two faculty members, H. Neil Hardy and Richard Keeley are directing the production.

Writing of the play was begun in September, with Marilyn Cooper, William Heidrich, Ruth Heimerdinger, Karen Brockman, Dona Ulrich, Allan Mager, Paul Landahl and William Bolker collaborating.

Chemistry and physics students have also been experimenting to produce various effects and those in charge have added a footnote to encourage ticket sales and attendance—the effects produced are all safe.

Title of the piece is "Man or Monster", and the cast is made up of James Staley, Don Korsgaard, James Cooper, Bob Olson, Rudolph Guzik, Fred Heitman and six of the authors. Diane Hochberger will serve as prompter.

Seal Sale in County Lags, Figures Show

Christmas Seals, a tradition in this country for the last 49 years, will be widely used in Will county this year as holiday decorations along with greens and berries.

Harold J. Schmitz, 1955 seal sale chairman, pointed out that the main purpose of the campaign is to finance the program of TB prevention and control through case finding, health education, rehabilitation and extended research.

Eighty percent of the Christmas Seal money remains in Will county and the remainder comes back to this area in services from the state and national associations. Schmitz pointed out already the Will County Tuberculosis association is planning expanded services to county communities for 1956.

Returns from the seals now total $10,481.50 for the county, Schmitz said, which is nearly $2,600 behind the comparable figure for the same date in 1954.

Schmitz said he was sure that many families plan to send in their contributions later but adds that early contributions will assist the volunteer staff in handling the returns and save the expense of follow-up cards.

Returns from Frankfort township to date are $245.50 according to chairman William Blaha and Herbert Lambrecht, $189.50 from New Lenox township where Ray Pfeiffer is seal chairman.

"Sewage treatment plants are generally located as far as practicable from built up areas or future residential areas to avoid local objections. Plants should be accessible to the outlets and ground not subject to flooding and should be built to care for increase in population for the future," Meers concluded.

Set Inspection Date For School Buses

The time for the semi-annual inspection of school buses and vehicles used for the transportation of pupils is near at hand. All inspections should be completed by the close of the Christmas vacation. County Superintendent Verne Cracker said in an announcement sent out to the schools that furnish transportation.

In this area there are four schools that operate buses, Lincoln-Way high which has seven, and Manhattan and New Lenox public schools which have one bus each, and St. Jude's school at New Lenox with one bus.

These vehicles are to be inspected Dec. 29 between 7 a.m. and 4 p.m. at the Johnston garage, 1 S. Eastern ave., Joliet.

Early Mailing Will Speed up Yule Deliveries

Postmasters Margaret O'Brien of Mokena and Leroy Mager of Frankfort announced today that there has been a steady increase in the flow of Christmas cards and packages thru the post office the past few days. He said he was glad to see that many people are getting their Christmas gifts for distant points into the mail this week pointing out that packages addressed to folks living in other states should all be mailed before December 5th and those for near-by points before Dec. 10.

Stressing the need for everyone to cooperate on his 1955 "Mail Early for Christmas" campaign, the postmaster says that by following these three simple rules, you're certain to have gifts delivered before Christmas day: Wrap them securely. Address them correctly, and Mail them early.

Careful Packing Necessary

He went on to say, "Of course early mailing of all Christmas cards and gifts is a big factor in getting everything delivered before Christmas. Keep in mind that careful packing and correct addressing is equally important. Every year many poorly wrapped packages break open despite careful handling and we often have to puzzle over addresses which are incomplete or simply cannot be read at all."

Advance care in preparing gift packages for the mails and making sure that all addresses are legible and complete will prevent disappointment to sender and receiver alike.

"If you have any articles of unusual size or bulk, better check with the post office before attempting to mail them," the postmaster warns. "The limits on size and weight of packages varies, depending on where you mail your package from."

Some post offices cannot accept packages that are more than 72 inches in combined length and girth, nor more than 20 pounds in weight. In others, the limits go up to 100 inches in combined length and girth and 70 pounds in weight.

Be Sure of Address

It is always better to use corrugated cartons for shipping your gifts especially where there are a number of various sized objects. Use plenty of wadded tissue or newspaper in the cartons for extra protection against shock. Complete each package by wrapping in heavy paper and tying it with strong cord.

As extra precaution against loss, postmasters advise placing both your return address and the recipient's address inside the carton or package before it is wrapped.

Don't seal your parcel unless you include a notice reading "Contents merchandise — may be opened for postal inspection."

Along with your return address and the recipient's address on the mailing label, if you use Christmas stickers or seals put them on the back of your Christmas cards and packages so that they will not conflict with the address on the front. Before you place your packages be sure that proper postage is firmly affixed to each. Make sure, of course, to include the recipient's full name, street address, city, zone and state.

MISSION REPORT

The report of Peter H. McCarthy, founder and head of the Morning Star mission in Joliet, covering activities in November show the number of conversions to have been 31. On the material side of the ledger appears 564 meals given to the needy and free lodgings provided for 240 persons. Seventy persons were furnished with clothing, without charge of course, and relief accorded 14 families.

Forty-four persons who were stranded in the community were provided with bus tickets to enable them to complete their journey. Twenty nine dozen doughnuts were served to children who called at the mission in the afternoons. November was the first month of the 47th year on the mission's calendar. Not only did the mission observe its anniversary last month but a group of business and spiritual leaders in Joliet gave a dinner to honor Pete McCarthy, Pete and his Morning Star missions are institutions and are known thruout the country.

About $600 worth of tools and equipment. No trace of either party of miscreants has been found.

Fordonskis to Open Tavern Tomorrow At Lincoln Estates

Gladys and Thomas Fordonski, who operated a gas station on U. S. Route 30 at Lincoln Estates for many years, have now increased their operations to include a tavern at that location to be known as the G. & T. Tap.

The grand opening of the new tavern is to be held this week ending beginning tomorrow and continuing thru Saturday and Sunday.

There will be a smorgasbord and other refreshments free, to be available each of the three nights. In addition to operating a bar the Fordonskis will also handle package goods.

Salvation Army Names Aides

Mrs. Elsie Gillette of Mokena has been named chairman of the Salvation Army Service committee for Mokena.

Mrs. Gillette has appointed Mrs. Florence Niethammer to serve as treasurer of the group. Other members are Mrs. Jacob Barenz, doughnut day chairman and Mrs. Margaret M. Semmler.

The service committee will represent the Salvation Army in rendering social welfare assistance to the needy of the Mokena area. This help will include aiding victims of fires and other disasters, providing food, clothing, fuel, furniture, lodging and other emergency services for persons in distress, as well as medical dental, surgical and optical care.

In addition to giving emergency and supplementary aid, the committee will also arrange for other traditional Salvation Army services such as hospitalization for unmarried mothers, rehabilitation of alcoholics and of delinquent men, vacations for needy families, aid to servicemen and hospitalized veterans, and any youth work in the community.

Mrs. Gillette said that one of the service committee's forthcoming activities will be to assist the Salvation Army in conducting its annual mail appeal for funds.

A portion of the funds raised in the mail campaign will remain with the treasurer of the committee to carry out the assistance program in Mokena. The balance of the amount raised will help support the other traditional Salvation Army services. This same plan is followed in allocating the funds raised on the doughnut day tag day held each June.

The Mokena service committee is one of 66 units organized by the Salvation Army's metropolitan division thru out the Chicago metropolitan area. Brigadier Charles Overstake is commanding officer of the division.

At Frankfort Mrs. Robert Purns will serve as a general chairman. Mrs. Burns will appoint several members to the service committee from representative Frankfort residents. Mrs. Al Hochberger, 217 Kansas will serve as treasurer of the group, and Rev. Ben F. Day, advisor.

Imported Workers Raise TB Rate in Will County, Report Shows

The annual report of Sunny Hill Sanatorium has been released by the trustees of the institution. Covering a period from Sept. 1, 1954 to Aug. 31, 1955, the report shows but three deaths from tuberculosis in the sanatorium during the report period. One of the deceased was a resident of another county and one had been treated elsewhere before admission. There were three other deaths in the institution, one from cancer and two from myo carditis.

A total of 139 patients were treated at the sanatorium. 82 were admitted during the year and 64 were discharged. There are some 60 patients in the sanatorium now. The far advanced pulmonary cases still lead the list of admission with the moderately advanced and the minimal cases following in that order. There were two patients diagnosed as having cancer following admission. Likewise one was discovered to have silicosis and four had silicosis and tuberculosis.

X-ray Clinic Busy

The report points out that a large number of persons in poor health are entering the community, drawn here by the lure of higher wages. These new comers present an increasing health problem. Many of the sanatorium admissions during the past year were not members of the community very long. Some of these people refused treatment and were very uncooperative.

The x-ray clinic activities increased during the past year according to the report. A total of 2405 patients were admitted to the clinic for a chest x-ray at the request of their physician. The clinic has become an important part of the County's case finding program.

The surgical program, the report shows, was conducted by Doctor Willard VanHazel and Doctor Robert Jenks. They performed 9 thoracic plasty operations, 5 lobectomies, and 2 segmental operations. Doctor Paul Hollinger performed 14 bronchoscopies while Doctor Francis Prock, the Medical Director, performed 172 pneumoperitoneum operations and 6 phrenectomies.

The trustees of the sanatorium are: Mrs. L. J. Fredericks, Dr. Gayle N. Hufford and Dr. Arthur Fahrner, all of Joliet.

Today, Dec. 1, has been designated as Safe Driving Day by President Eisenhower, a vast national effort to reduce traffic fatalities.

The first S-D Day which was observed last year contributed to a reduction of 15 per cent in traffic deaths from the previous year.

It is the hope of all those who work at safety that every man, woman and child—motorists and pedestrians—will enlist in the drive against traffic death and injury, and that not only today but every day will be a Safe Driving Day.

In 1954 36,000 deaths occurred on the highways and a million and a quarter persons were injured to an extent that they required medical or surgical treatment.

Statistics show that speed was a major factor in fatal accidents and that one out of five drivers involved in such tragedies had been drinking.

Wet, muddy, snowy or icy roads were reported in one out of three cases and of all traffic accidents in 1954 more than one out of five occurred between 5 and 8 p.m.

Give Tips

Meanwhile, state, county and local police urge drivers and pedestrians to remember that S-D Day comes at a time when traffic fatalities reach an all-time high.

They quoted figures from the National Safety Council indicating that December usually results in the highest number of traffic deaths than any other month of the year.

There are six safe-driving tips that motorists should remember at this time of the year, police say, and list them as follows:

1. Get the "feel" of the road. Be alert but relaxed, try to sense road and weather conditions before you start out.
2. Adjust speed to road and weather condition. If the road is slick and the weather is against you, take it easy.
3. Keep windows and windshield clear at all times. You have to see danger to avoid it. Carry an ice scraper to use when snow and ice get too heavy to be taken care of by the windshield wiper.
4. Use tire chains on ice and snow. They can greatly reduce stopping time.
5. When using the brake, step on it promptly, release it completely, and repeat the process intermittently for a safe "pumping" action.
6. Drive a safe distance behind other vehicles.

Letter in Parcel O.K. Now if You Add 3-cent Stamp

If you want to enclose a letter or message in a parcel post package or inside a publication it is permissible now, providing you indicate on the outside of the parcel or publication that a message is enclosed and add a 3-cent stamp to the other postage.

Postmaster General Summerfield has announced that the new combination of mail service will be given a 60 day trial. The new service became effective last Monday, Nov. 28.

This will make it handy for persons who would like to enclose a message or letter in their Christmas packages. Previously if one made such an enclosure he was required to pay the first class rate for the entire package and that could run into money.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to our friends, neighbors and relatives for their sympathy and kindness shown to us at the time of the death of our husband and father; also to the Rev. William Riemann and the Rev. Arthur Contois for their comforting words and for the floral offerings.

MRS. CLAYTON BOSARD
AND FAMILY

Mrs. Vernon Haag and daughter Janet returned to their home Sunday in Cullom after spending the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Hostert.

Mrs. Margaret Semmler received word Monday of the death of her cousin, Mrs. Louise Houchin who passed away that morning in Branson, Mo. Mrs. Houchin became quite well acquainted in Mokena as she and her husband spent the summers in Mokena for many years. Mrs. Houchin, who was 89 last August broke her hip in a fall in her home and had not been able to walk again, altho she improved greatly. She was born in Chicago and spent many years in business in Chicago, at one time being a owner of a theatre, which she managed. She also owned a delicatessen store in Englewood. She had remarkable and alert mind, even at the time of her death. She is survived by her husband, William E. who is not in good health, having suffered several strokes during the past several months. Funeral services and burial was held in Branson, Wednesday.

The WSCS of the Methodist church will hold their Christmas party in the home of Mrs. William Bradley Thursday Dec. 8 at 2 p. m. A 50c gift exchange will be a part of the entertainment. The Sunbeam Camp 6054, Royal Neighbors of America will meet Tuesday evening Dec. 13 in the VFW hall. Election of officers will be held. A pot luck luncheon and Christmas party with a 50c gift exchange will follow the meeting when the secret pals will also be revealed.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schaub entertained at dinner in their home Sunday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Al. Kutscha, Walter Kutscha of Woodstock; Miss Henrietta Schill, Mrs. Henrietta Haberich and Edward Hoss-comme of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. John Pollock of Oak Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Gunhouse celebrated their 36th wedding anniversary at a family dinner Saturday evening in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carol Roberts. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Sorenson Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Gunhouse and their families besides the host and hostess and honored couple. They were given a gift from the group.

Miss Helen Eggers of Joliet spent the week end with her niece, Mrs. Alma Wythx. They went to Chicago Saturday to see her brother Herman Eggers.

Mrs. Fred Cappel is slowly improving but still is not able to leave the hospital. Two special nurses are in attendance.

James William Marshall, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. James Marshall of Chicago, was baptized Sunday in the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Martie, with the Rev. William Riemann officiating.

Sponsors were Barbara and Jack Martie who were home from Milliken college at Decatur. Others present at a buffet supper were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Marshall, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Martie and Mrs. Riemann.

Mrs. Roy Kropp will entertain the Afternoon Pinochle club in her home this afternoon at 1:30. A gift exchange will also be enjoyed.

Mrs. Francis Logan of Columbus, O., was a guest last week of her aunts, Mrs. Rose Bechstein and Mrs. Lydia Ryan. She came to take her mother Mrs. Emma Hauck to Columbus for a few days. The latter is now visiting other sisters in Joliet.

Thanksgiving Day Guests
The Rev. and Mrs. William J. Riemann and daughter Dorothy of Chicago were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Laurian at Wisconsin Rapids, Wis. They made the trip in ideal weather, returning Saturday evening.

The Stanley Williams family spent the day at a family gathering in the Homer Smith home in Frankfort.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Chmd-ganil and sons Rolf and Tasso and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Siegfried Mischnick and daughter all of Chicago and Harry Oswald were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Thiel. Mrs. Rose Bechstein and Mrs. Lydia Ryan joined them for a 5:30 dessert.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dammer and Mrs. Alice Roberts of Chicago were guests of the latter's daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Marshall and family in Sunny Acres.

Miss Doris Cummons, a senior at Silver Cross School of Nursing, Joliet, is taking a three month affiliation course in neuropsychiatric nursing at the Veterans Administration hospital. Hines, and Miss Rita Werner, also a Silver Cross senior, will begin a course in pediatric nursing at Children's Memorial hospital, Milwaukee on Dec. 5.

Scout Trail

Will Select Patrol
The South Cook County council will be represented at the 1956 roundup at Pontiac, Mich. by a patrol of eight girls. On Nov. 9, the council's roundup committee selected the following sixteen senior scouts from a large number of applicants. Evergreen Park; Cynthia Cook and Barbara Sezik Harvey; Carol Reckner Homewood; Margaret Gring, Carolyn Hupe, Diane Leetz, Mimi Leetz, Jayne Meyer, and Joan Spooner; Matteson; Janice Gallman, Barbara Gerloff, and Rosemary Williamson; Park Forest; Sharon Bean, Pat Douglas, Mary Jeske, and Mary Louise Peryam.

On Dec. 14, these girls will be divided into the roundup patrol of eight and a patrol of eight alternates. Final selection will depend largely on the performance of each girl during the first two primitive camp training sessions to be held Dec. 3 and Dec. 10 at Camp Thorn Creek from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Close Year

Because there will be no December meeting, Tinley Park Girl Scout Neighborhood closed the year at their November 22 meeting.

Neighborhood chairman, Mrs. P. L. Jochum took roll-call of each troop. Troop leaders gave tentative plans for their troop's activities for the coming year, and in many instances resumed some of the more interesting happenings of the past year. Thus all could share in the programming and perhaps make use of it for the future. Also a poll was taken as to troop enrollment and probable fly-ups after the first of the year.

The 1956 Girl Scout calendars were distributed by Mrs. Elmer Knudsen, calendar chairman. Announcement was made of the presentation of a certificate to the Neighborhood from the Tuberculosis Institute of Cook County. This was in recognition of services in the distribution of flyers announcing the date of the mobile x-ray unit in the village. The Lions club, sponsors of the x-ray unit, were host to the chairman of the Girl Scouts and the Boy Scouts at the recent Chamber of Commerce-Lions club banquet at which time presentation was made.

The auditing committee consisting of Mrs. Harold Zobac, Mrs. Paul Nielsen and Mrs. Donald Hollingshead will audit the books and prepare a statement of same before turning them over to the new secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Ray Anderson. A reminder of the Scout Policy, that the scout pin is a personal piece belonging to the individual, and therefore should be purchased by the individual at the time of investiture, was brought to the attention of the leaders. Adult investiture is planned for the January meeting. Leaders are asked to brief their new co-leaders and committee on the above policy as well as the necessity of learning the girl scout promise and being familiar with the ten girl scout laws.

The new neighborhood chairman, Mrs. Elmer Knudsen was presented with a scrap-book containing publicity of the past two years' activities of the Tinley Park Neighborhood. Also passed on to her for keeping were the two statue trophies won by the Brownies and Girl Scouts two years ago in the Labor day festivities, as was the green burlap used on the float in the parade. A letter has been sent to the board of education, Tinley Park schools, expressing appreciation for the use of the building for neighborhood meetings.

Reclamation work carried on by coal operators in surface mining areas pays big dividends according to a recent report of the Kansas Forestry, Fish and Game Commission which said 66 Kansas open pit coal mines have been transformed into 384 acres of fishing grounds for Kansas sportsmen.

Goodwill Industries Open Antique Shop

Goodwill Industries of Chicago had a grand opening of its antique and curio department last Monday at 1500 W. Monroe st. Hereafter, the antique and curio department will be open to the public on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays with hundreds of antique, unusual and interesting articles for sale.

The revenue derived from this department will enable Goodwill Industries to maintain its present employees and go ahead in its drive to employ more of the city's handicapped people, according to Morris Mathisen, sales manager.

All material sold thru the Goodwill stores is sorted and repaired by physically, emotionally and mentally handicapped workers whose livelihood depends upon the sale of these articles.

People who mind their own business usually succeed—they have so little competition.

Will Sell School At Public Auction

A schoolhouse is to be sold at public auction Dec. 10, which is a week from Saturday.

The building is part of School District 160 in Rich township and located at the southwest corner of 183rd st. and Cicero ave.

Terms of the sale call for cash and the purchaser is to remove the school house from the premises within 60 days after the sale. The building is being offered for sale by the school trustees of Rich township, E.A. Schmeckpeper, Bernard Hamermesh and George Blume, who reserve the right to adjourn the sale to another date in the event no satisfactory bid is received Dec. 10.

Joan Petersen, Wilmot Wesley Wed at St. Paul's, Tinley Park

The marriage vows of Joan Margaret Petersen and Wilmot Wesley Poese were spoken before the altar of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Tinley Park, on Wednesday, November 23 at 7 p.m., with the Rev. J. W. Petersen, father of the bride, officiating. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle and sponsor, Harry Lund, of Omaha, Neb. The bride was gown in an heirloom wedding dress worn by her mother at her wedding. It was ivory silk satin with jeweled bodice and train. Her finger tip veil, an heirloom in the groom's family, was fashioned of chantilly lace. She carried a prayer book with white orchids. The maid of honor, Miss Marjorie Steinbrueck of Alma, Mo., wore a crystal gown of burnt orange and carried a cascade of autumn blossoms. The bridesmaid, Miss Wanoma Hoenn of Perryville, Mo., wore an identical gown to that worn by the maid of honor. Sheryl Ann, daughter of the groom, was the flower girl and was dressed in a white crystalet gown, and carried rose petals in a basket. Her headpiece was tiny roses. The maid of honor and the bridesmaid were both classmates of the bride in a school of nursing. Oswald Rolf of Alma, Mo., was best man. The ushers were Thomas Petersen, brother of the bride, Vernon Kampe and Delmar Kampe of Tinley Park. The bride's mother wore a beige wool jersey dress with white accessories and the mother of the groom was dressed in a rust ensemble. Both mothers wore purple orchid corsages. Miss Constance Goers of Markham was the soloist and Mrs. Lloyd Bettenhausen of Tinley Park was the organist. A wedding dinner was served at 4 o'clock in the St. Paul parish hall by the ladies of the church. Autumn flowers were used to decorate the parish hall for the reception after the ceremony. Miss Dolores Blume was in charge of the guest register. The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. John W. Petersen, Tinley Park, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Poese of Sweet Springs, Mo. After a wedding trip to the south, the couple will be at home in Malta Bend, Mo. The bride will continue her studies in Marshall college, Marshall, Mo. for her degree in nursing.

Heptig-Jowers Vows Solemnized at Grace Church in New Lenox

Married at a four o'clock ceremony the afternoon of Nov. 26 in Grace Episcopal church, New Lenox, were Miss Gail Karen Heptig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Heptig, 169 Pine street, New Lenox, and James Eugene Jowers, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Jowers, 539 N. Kedzie ave., Chicago. The Rev. Kenneth Hansen, former New Lenox pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony assisted by Rev. Harris Mooney, before an altar decorated with bouquets of white mums. Mrs. Sam Carr, organist, accompanied Miss Kay Miller who sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer." Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of chantilly lace over satin with a high neckline, tight fitted bodice, buttoned down the back to the waistline with tiny self covered buttons, long sleeves and a full skirt ending in a chapel length train. She wore a fingertip veil of silk illusion, attached to a crown headpiece trimmed with seed pearls and lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of white mums. Miss Lynn Heptig was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a gown of pink taffeta and net with fuchsia velvet jacket and a matching boat shaped headpiece of velvet. Pink shoes and gloves completed her attire. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations. Ray Miner of Chicago attended the groom as best man, and Bruce Damerell of New Lenox was the usher. More than 75 guests attended the reception given by the bride's parents, in the home of the brides aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. William Yeoman, 170 Pine street. A three tiered wedding cake and a bride doll dressed identical to the bride with white candelabra decorated the bride's table for the buffet supper. The bride's mother wore a turquoise taffeta dress with brown accessories and a corsage of bronze and yellow mums. The mother of the bridegroom chose a navy blue dress, with matching accessories and a yellow corsage of mums. The couple are now residing at 732 N. Bittersweet in Chicago. The bride is employed at the Mobile Homes Mfg. Co. in Chicago and the bridegroom is the London and Lancashire Ins. Co. at Chicago.

Angela Zick, Morris, Becomes Bride of Lawrence Bokoski, Homer

The Immaculate Conception church of Morris was the scene of a fall wedding Saturday, November 19, at 3 o'clock, when Angela Zick, daughter of Mrs. Anthony Zick of Morris and the late Mr. Zick, became the bride of Lawrence Bokoski, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Bokoski of Homer Twp. at a double ring ceremony performed by Msgr. E. P. McDonough, pastor of the church. There was appropriate wedding music before and during the ceremony by the church organist and soloist. White mums adorned the altar and the bride placed a bouquet of yellow mums at the altar of the Blessed Virgin. The maid of honor was Miss Frances Zick, while the bridesmaids were Mrs. Bernard Karcz and Miss Marie Krieger. Roger Myers served his cousin as best man and ushers were Leo Bokoski and Stanley Jungles. The bride's mother wore a turquoise taffeta dress with brown accessories and a corsage of bronze and yellow mums. The mother of the bridegroom chose a navy blue dress, with matching accessories and a yellow corsage of mums. The couple are now residing at 732 N. Bittersweet in Chicago. The bride is employed at the Mobile Homes Mfg. Co. in Chicago and the bridegroom is the London and Lancashire Ins. Co. at Chicago.

etia fashioned with a full skirt and a head piece of matching net. The bridesmaid dresses were identically made but azalea red in color. The bride carried a bouquet of red roses while her attendants' flowers were multi-colored in colonial bouquets. Mrs. Zick, mother of the bride wore turquoise blue crepe and a corsage of white roses. Mrs. Frank Kolar, the groom's aunt, wore a similar corsage and she and Mr. Kolar attended the six o'clock dinner at Little Jack's restaurant with the bridal party and the immediate relatives of the two families. At 8 o'clock that evening a reception was held at West Lockport Gleaner hall attended by more than 300 persons. Attending the guest book at the reception were Mrs. Otto Konow, Jr. and Mrs. John Horvath. Following an extended motor trip thru the east which will include Washington D. C., and New York city, Mr. and Mrs. Bokoski will live on the home farm on 159th st., which the groom has operated since the death of his father. The bride was formerly employed at the Self-Locking Carton Co. at Morris. Coal was the only fuel used in the generation of electric power in Michigan in 1954.

Honor Recent Bride at Shower

Mrs. Henry Landau, of Frankfort, and Mrs. Harry VerWey Jr. entertained with a post nuptial shower in the home of the former, on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 20, honoring Mrs. Gordon Berggren. The home was attractively decorated in pink and blue. Upon the bride's arrival she was seated under a pink umbrella under which were her many love-ly gifts. Games were played and prizes given. A tasty lunch was served buffet style to approximately 40 guests who were present from Tinley Park, Mokena, Frankfort, Orland Park, Oak Forest, Hazelcrest, Brookfield, Berwyn, Chicago and Monee. Mrs. Berggren was the former Marianne Sippel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Sippel, and was married on Nov. 5 in the Methodist church in Tinley. The newlyweds will live in an apartment at 17440 65th ave., Tinley Park.

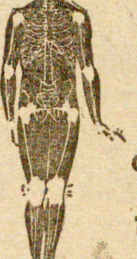

Green Garden Group Observes Anniversary

At the family night held in the Green Garden Methodist church Sunday evening, the founding of the Women's Society of Christian Service was observed. It was 35 years ago when a group of women met in the home of Mrs. Christina Krapf and organized the Ladies Aid society. Six of those members were present. They were Mrs. Krapf, Mrs. Adolph Ullrich, Mrs. Marie Bettenhausen, Mrs. William H. Bettenhausen, and the Misses Emma and Clara Andres. Mrs. Norman Krapf presented a program giving honor to Mrs. Christina Krapf with a "This is Your Life" sketch. Many incidents of the past were brought to mind and letters of commendation were read. Also friends and relatives added their praises. Mrs. Christina Krapf was presented a corsage. Also present were the latter's two sons, Alfred and Milton and her five grandchildren. Another grandson, William, is serving in the army. Also present were the honored guest's seven great-grandchildren. Mrs. Edwin Dralle was also honored for serving the group as president for 20 years and she too was presented with a corsage. It was 15 years ago when the name of the society was changed to the one it now bears. Following the skit a colored film was shown and refreshments were served from a table centered with a two tiered cake.

Safe Driving Day

President Eisenhower, in proclaiming the nationwide observance of today, Dec. 1, as Safe Driving Day, has emphasized two aspects of the drive against traffic accidents in this country. First, that such an urgent plea should be made by the leader of our country to walk and to drive safely reveals not only the national concern over traffic problems but also the belief that the solution lies in a strong appeal to mass sentiment and action. Second, such a presidential appeal voices the conviction that traffic accidents CAN be prevented by organized mass attack. Just how serious is the traffic problem in this country at this time? Last year, the National Safety Council estimates 36,000 people were killed and

1,250,000 injured in traffic accidents. The total cost of these accidents (including property damage, medical expense, wage loss, insurance costs, etc.) amounted to $4,400,000,000. While the ever curve of the traffic death rate has shown sporadic spurts upward—as in the prewar jitters and the post-war jubilation of World War II—it has shown a downward trend during the past ten years. The death rate last year, despite increases in population, travel, and motorists, was the lowest on record: 6.4 persons for every 100 million miles of travel.

The drive against traffic accidents in this country is not a new battle, but over the years it has grown to such a size that it has now become a national issue. In this campaign for traffic safety the necessity and effectiveness of intensive public education in safety is no longer a debatable point; rather we should like to think that the attrition of the traffic death rate over the years is due in some measure to the slow but certain effect of a public education program which, through its many spirited leaders, has valiantly and persistently attacked the problem of traffic safety.

Can a 24-hour mass attack on the traffic problem such as S-D Day produce any tangible results? On S-D day last year a comparison was made between the number of accidents which occurred on that day with those on the same day of the previous year. It was found that there was a reduction of 15 per cent in traffic deaths, according to the President's committee for traffic safety.

If one day of safe driving and walking can produce such gratifying results, there is no doubt that a continuous day-by-day program would in time make an appreciable reduction in the annual traffic toll in this country. Furthermore, it would indicate that however you try to engineer, enforce, or argue safety—and all these approaches are necessary in the solution of the traffic problem—down at the bottom, at the grass roots of any mass movement, is the will and sense of personal responsibility of the individual.

The problem of human safety in our traveled city arteries and on our highways will be solved when each and everyone of us exercises this will toward safety when we make every day Safe Driving Day.

LEGAL NOTICE

State of Illinois County of Will, ss. In the Circuit Court of Will County, Illinois. Plaintiff, Clara Hume, Village of Peotone, a Municipal Corporation, Paul V. Wunder, Jr., Clerk of the Circuit Court of Will County, Illinois, as successor trustee, and Unknown Owners, Defendants.

Publication Notice Cause No. 57566 In Chancery

The requisite affidavits having been filed in the office of the clerk of this court, notice is hereby given you, Clara Hume and Unknown Owners, that suit entitled as above has been commenced and is now pending against you and other persons wherein plaintiff seeks to foreclose the lien of taxes and special assessments on the following described real estate, to-wit: Lots Four (4) and Five (5) of Block Twenty-eight (28) of the Village of Peotone, a Subdivision of part of the East Half of Section Twenty-four (24), in Township Thirty-three (33) North, and in Range Twelve (12) East of the Third Principal Meridian, in Will County, Illinois, and that said action is now pending and undetermined in said court, and you are further notified that unless on or before Monday, January 2, 1956, you shall appear and defend in said suit, default judgment may be entered against you on the day following or thereafter. PAUL V. WUNDER, JR. Clerk of said Court Frank H. Masters, Jr. State's Attorney of Will County, Illinois. Charles H. Blim, Assistant State's Attorney of Will County, Illinois. Dec. 1, 8, 15, 1955

State of Illinois, County of Will, ss. In the County Court of Said County Charles H. Anderson and Dorothea Anderson, Plaintiffs, Betty Byrnes, Baby Boy Byrnes, and "All whom it may concern", Defendants.

Adoption Notice No. 9208 To all whom it may concern: Take notice that on the 29th day of November, A. D. 1955, a petition was filed by Charles H. Anderson and Dorothea Anderson in the County Court of Will County, Illinois, for the adoption of a child named Baby Boy Byrnes. Now, unless you appear on or before January 2, 1956, and show cause against such application, the petition shall be taken as confessed and a decree of adoption entered. Joseph H. Knights Bow to Peotone 61-40; to Meet Evergreen Park Friday

By Denny Wheeler
The Lincoln-Way Knights ran into another rough evening last Wednesday night as the Peotone Blue Devils licked them 61-40.
Altho the Knights' play was considerably improved over that of the Plainfield tilt, it was not enough to cope with the powerful Blue Devils that ran up 19 victories last year. Spearheading the Devils' attack were Albers and Koch (pronounced Coo.) who each netted 17 points.
Peotone jumped away to an 8-2 lead but Danny Wondrasek quickly sunk 5 tallies to narrow the margin to 10-7. However the Red and Black dropped only one more point in the quarter and the score stood 16-8 as the teams returned to the hardwood for the second period.
The game settled into an even contest during the second quarter as the squads traded basket. The half ended with the Blue Devils on top 29-20 and the Knights very much in the ball game.
However, the third period proved disastrous as the Peotone cagers pulled away to a 43-26 advantage.

The fourth period was an anticlimax even though both teams were very hot, running up 32 points between them.
Danny Wondrasek, the Knights' fighting forward, and Mark "Sweetwater" Schellenberg led the individual scoring for the Knights with 13 markers each.
The frosh-soph game proved to be a fine shooting exhibition by the little Blue Devils as they ran over the little Knights 55-26. Lincoln-Way had one of those nights when they seemed to a lid on the hoop. Eddie Donaldson led the little Knights with 10 tallies and Ron Fredin followed closely with 8 points, all free throws.
The Lincoln-Way teams travel to Evergreen Park tomorrow night for a conference game and two very close games are expected. The Knights' fans are getting hungry for that first victory and this may be it.

Wrestlers at Bremen Prep for Sandburg

Coach Art Suchomel's Bremen high grapplers open their 1955-56 wrestling season at Carl Sandburg tomorrow, Dec. 2, in a Southwest Suburban conference match.
With only five returning lettermen, Coach Suchomel faces the task of building a mat squad which hopes to better last year's record of 9 wins and 6 losses.
Altho no position is cinched, according to Coach Suchomel, first-string berths will likely go to veterans Jack Ruter, 120 lbs.; Norm Scharlau, 133 lbs.; George Avellano, 138 lbs.; Mack Jerkatis, 145 lbs.; and Joe O'Brien, 175 lbs.
Contending for the heavyweight position are Bill Fierke, Ed Teichman, both carry-overs from the football team, and Rich Wiabel.
Three freshmen, Charles Okresik, Oda Drake, and John McNeeler, are battling it out for the 95 lb. division.
The 154 lb. opening has developed into a struggle between Jack Unzicker and Earl Wiley. Jim Gruhn and Joe Ciserella are competing for 103 lb. honors, while Wayne Designia and Ray Talan battle for the 112 lb. position.
At 127 lbs. Dave Waite seems to hold the edge over the other candidates in his class.
In commenting on his squad's potential, Coach Suchomel remarked, "Our prospects are good and the team balance is pretty fair, but with this tough 15 meet schedule, ahead anything can happen."

Mokena Cagers Play Tonight

The Mokena public school basketball teams will open their season tonight, Dec. 1, against New Lenox. The lightweights will begin at 7:30 and the heavyweights tilt will follow. Both games are to be played in Mokena gym and are extremely important to both teams.
Mokena lost the lightweight championship to New Lenox last year in a playoff at Lincoln-Way high school. The Mokena heavies finished second in the Desplaines Valley conference last year while New Lenox was third. Mokena's combined record for last year was 20 victories and 7 defeats.

This season's schedule follows:

Anti-freeze for automobile radiators is produced from coal at the Belle, W. Va., plant of E. I. du Pont de Nemours Co. in large enough quantity every year to give winter-long protection to several million cars.
West Virginia's 11 electric utility plants used coal exclusively for power generation in 1954.

Meets Bremen in League Opener Tomorrow Night

The 1955-56 edition of the Carl Sandburg basketball team made an auspicious debut Wednesday night, Nov. 23 as they struggled to a one point victory over Minooka on Minooka's home court. The final score read Sandburg 55-Minooka 54. Ragged play on both sides typical of the season opened, was common for both sides. However, Carl Sandburg followers can take hope from the fact that shooting was fine for an opening game, and the boys had plenty of drive and spirit.

Carl Sandburg plays two games this week as they open the conference season with a Friday night game against the Bremen Braves on the Bremen home court. Saturday night the lid on the home basketball season will be pried off as Blue Island calls at Sandburg. Season tickets are still available and will be on sale at the game Saturday night for those who so far have not purchased theirs. Besides a saving of $1 for the season ticket also guarantees a reserve seat for all games on the Sandburg court this year. Season tickets are also available at the Palos Heights pharmacy and Kirks Grill in Orland. The ball game against Minooka was close all the way. The game was really won at the free throw line as Sandburg dropped 9 of 18 charity tosses and Minooka was able to cage only 6 of 15. The rebounding work of Gee and the fine out-court shooting of Weingartner stood out in the game. Beck, a last half substitute, dropped in a rebound and a 30-footer in two attempts, to help considerably.

Saturday night's home opener against Blue Island will begin with a frosh-soph game at 7 o'clock. The frosh-soph team also defeated Minooka in a loosely played ball game 27-18.

Underground safety has taken another long forward step through instant and simultaneous communication between coal mine loading points, shop, office, dispatcher and locomotive engineers made possible through the development of a new mine phone system operated on the push button principle.

Two of the world's largest scoop up rocks at the bottom. The excavating buckets can by England's National Coal Board, moved aboard 88 railroad cars to docks in Baltimore for loading aboard ships. Built to remove immense deposits of overburden from deep-lying coal reserves, these giant machines with their 280-foot booms could sit atop Niagara Falls and Battista.

Losing Money Not Amusement, Declares Castle

A new type device which looks like a gum-vending machine, which for a quarter gives the player a slip of paper with slot-machine characters printed thereon, is a gambling device in itself and therefore is contraband and subject to seizure the same as a slot machine, Attorney General Castle has held in an official opinion.

A number of such machines have been seized by State Highway Police in raids in Cook county. State Highway Police Superintendent Phil M. Brown requested Castle's opinion as to whether the machines legally are gambling devices.

A Bead and Bowl

The machine comprises a glass bowl containing numerous small plastic beads. In a hole in each bead is inserted a slip of paper on which are printed the familiar symbols found on slot machines, consisting of oranges, lemons, plums and bars. The player inserts a quarter in the slot and by tripping a lever secures one of the pellets. He unfolds the paper to learn the combination he has secured.

A slip of paper pasted on the face of the machine bears the words "For amusement only."

"To suggest that the machine is used for amusement," Castles opinion advised Brown, "is to imply that persons who have reached a reasonable maturity find amusement in placing a quarter in a machine for which they receive a small plastic bead and a slip of paper. The suggestion is preposterous."

No Skill Here

Castle's opinion cited the statute declaring slot and other gambling machines subject to seizure and destruction and which provide exceptions for machines offering no rewards or free games and the operation of which requires some skill on the part of the player. No skill is required to operate the machine in question, the opinion said.

Intramural Basketball
By Marlice Ging
During the noon hour of Mon. Nov. 14th, intramural basketball was played between the Panthers and the Bloppie Bisons. The Bloppie Bisons won by a score of 39 to 10. Wed., Nov. 16th, the Blue Devils beat the Small Frys 24 to 12.
There are eight teams of 12 players each, the players are from the sixth, seventh, and eighth grades. The team captains are Tom Propp, Howard Wehr, Ronald Elmore, Bill O'Neill, Wesley Grant, James Hood, Jim Farmer, and Jack Hargrove, all of the eighth grade. The games will be played every Monday, Wednesday and Friday noon.

Study Pilgrims
By Fran Swisher
The Citizenship club of Mrs. Florence Phillips, fourth grade, room 302, has set up a Thanksgiving scene in their classroom. The students assembled miniature pilgrims and Indians out of gaily colored pipe cleaners, donated by classmates and dressed them in old sweater sleeves discarded by classmates.
Various other handmade items such as teepees and totem poles are included in the familiar Thanksgiving harvest in 1621. To complete the project, turkeys were made out of paper plates and potatoes. In their research the fourth graders learned that the Indians traveled many miles to get the cranberries for the joyous feast.
They also discovered that the harvest festival is only one of seven celebrated annually by the Algonquians. A majority of the class has learned "Hawthorne's childhood" for memory.

bune Tower and the department of the Chicago Tribune on Nov. 21.

They went on a conducted tour consisting of first, a movie entitled, "Trees to Tribunes" which told the story from the start, beginning with the different lumber camps, belonging to the Tribune, in the United States and Canada. Mechanical and hand saws re user when the trees are felled as well as axes used for making notches on the side of the tree to the direction it is to fall. The most commonly used means of transportation to ship the trees to the frozen river after they have been cut into four feet lengths, is an electric horse-drawn sleds, tractor-drawn sleds and trucks.

In the spring the rivers thaw and the logs begin their travel to be made into pulp and paper. A use for the bark was found. It is used for making heavy wrapping paper and many other kinds of paper that must be stronger than wood pulp can provide. Chemicals are used in making some of the paper and some of it is made by mechanical processing alone. Ships belonging to the Tribune transport logs from as far as 1000 miles away.

The Tribune has presses that are equipped to produce 44,000 papers per hour. T pupils saw the reporters at work from an upstairs balcony while the guide pointed out certain editors of the different sections of the paper.

The Sunday comics are printed two or even three weeks in advance, so that the presses are free for printing the daily papers.

The Tribune has the largest press room in the world. After the tour was concluded some of the pupils went up to the top of the Tribune Tower. Miss Frances Thurston accompanied her eighth grade, room 300 to the Tower on Nov. 23.

Billy Zawada, and Larry Delia were elected representatives to the student council from the patrol. They will report the record of the patrol for each month.

The election was at the Tinley Park school. Only bus patrol and school patrol boys could vote.
Take Field Trip
By Suzanne Watkins
Room 200 and room 102 went on a trip to the Book Fair at the Museum of Science and Industry Friday, November 18. They saw the 3,000 books on display and talked with several of the author and illustrators in the "Meet the Authors" room. The rooms attended a program featuring Elisa Bialk, author of, "The Colt of Cripple Creek," and "Giant of the Rockies."

Decorate Rooms
By Elaine Feiwel
Mr. Kosteck's sixth grade class room 201 decorated their room for Thanksgiving with turkeys, pilgrims, and other appropriate items for the occasion.
Room 100 held a meeting of its class club on Thursday, November 10 for the purpose of picking a chairman of the decorating committee and the entertainment committee. The children elected Trudie Brage for entertainment committee chairman and James Gibsons for the decorating committee chairman.

Frankfort Herd Again Tops in Milk Production

According to the September report of Dairy Herd Improvement No. 1, Loren Williams, tester, the Holstein herd owned by Valy & Homerding, Frankfort, led this group in high cows with an individual sow which produced 2373 pounds of milk and 74 pounds of butterfat in September.

Other high producing cows, with breeds and averages, were owned by the following: William Bernard & Sons, Mokena, Holstein, 1692-73; Wilbur P. Heisner, Manhattan, Holstein, 2028-71; Donald Bacon, Crete, Grade, 1773-71; Herman Gee, Orland Park, Holstein, 1995-70.

In Association No. 2, Chris Madson, tester, Walter Stoeven and Son, had a Holstein which led this group in September by producing 2136 pounds of milk and 94 pounds of butterfat.

Other high producing cows in this group in September, with breeds and productions, were owned by the following: Edwin Moore & Son, Manhattan, Holstein, 2160-82; Harry Von Alven & Son, Grant Park, Holstein, 2010-82; Phillip Triem & Son, New Lenox, Holstein, 2250-81; Walter Stoeven & Son, 2412-75; Harry Von Alven & Son, 1980-75.

Safety experts say three out five fatal auto accidents occur during darkness. Coming winter months bring longer hours of darkness so motorists must be extra alert.

If driving conditions are poor, the Chicago Motor Club suggests you allow more time to drive to your destination.

Regular cleaning with soap and water will keep faucets of bathroom fixtures shiny and new. Never use harsh abrasives, says the Plumbing Fixture Manufacturers Association. Rough, gritty cleaning compounds will scratch the fixtures.

New Assistant Home Adviser to Begin Work Dec. 1

The executive board of home bureau held its regular session last week in the conference room at the farm bureau.
Mrs. Edward Berens presided with the following board members present: Mrs. Wilbur Lauffer, Mrs. Harold Scheer, Miss Hazel Cowell, Mrs. Harry Eaton, Mrs. Richard Erickson, Mrs. Earl Lockwood and Mrs. Gailen Holloway.

Routine reports were given and dates for special future meetings were set in order that speakers may be engaged in advance.

Mrs. Berens, Mrs. Scheer and Miss Cowell will represent home bureau on the H I A board.

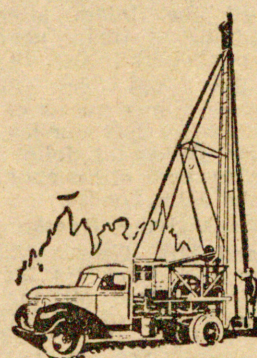

Mrs. Ruth Mozzi was present and gave a report of her activities since assuming her position as home advisor in Will county. Mrs. Mozzi is from Texas and has had 10 years' experience as an "agent" in that state.

The board agreed to hire Mrs. Betty Shinn as assistant home advisor, she will begin her duties Dec. 1. Mrs. Shinn is a University of Illinois graduate with a bachelor's degree in general home economics. She graduated in 1953.

Seventy five women attended the recent workshop held in Manhattan when a paper craft, copper enameling and leather tooling were offered. Mrs. Earl Lockwood was general chairman of this event.

The next meeting will be on Dec. 19 at 10 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Beren at 19 N. Hickory st., Joliet.

The Plumbing Fixture Manufacturers Association says that steadily dripping water can cause rust spots and mineral stains on high-gloss enameled fixtures.

Social Studies

The ninth grade social studies classes have had a number of excellent resource persons to assist them in their study of health and safety. In the area of health and sanitation, Mr. Cade, health education officer of Will county, and Mr. Martin, county health inspector, talked to the classes on the functions of the county health officer, bringing out many interesting points on how diseases are checked and prevented and how sanitation is provided for in public places in the county. Dr. Webb, county veterinarian, discussed with the class the importance of the inspection of cattle for diseases and the precautions taken to insure the public of a pure milk and meat supply.

In the area of safety, Police Chief John Pease of Frankfort, brought out the importance of local law enforcement and the methods used to prevent and detect crime. Sgt. Jack Carlstrom of the State police safety division, emphasized the importance of good driving habits, particularly among teen-agers today. Both Chief Pease and Sgt. Carlstrom stressed the human tragedies created by reckless driving on our highways. They passed along to the students many good suggestions as to good driving practices.

Another interesting topic covered in the area of safety was the work being done by the Illinois state division of criminology located at Joliet. Mr. Schroeder, a sociologist on the staff, spoke to the students about the functions of this office and how it cooperates with the prison of prisoners.

Each class invited one guest speaker. The talk along with authorities in the rehabilitation student questions was tape recorded so that the other classes might also benefit from the information.

The classes wish to express their thanks for the time given by these public officials.

Latin Club Enjoys Trip

On Nov. 15 Lincoln-Way's Latin club made a field trip to Chicago, where they visited the Art Institute and the John Crerar library and observed the influence of Greece and Rome on our world today.

As the bus, ably piloted by Polle Cagwin, pulled onto Lincoln Highway, it was raining very dimly. The weather forecast said "Freezing rain and snow by afternoon." This didn't dampen the spirits of our (fairly) eager culture-seekers. They were happy because the bus bringing Gus Fehrenbacher and Suzie Eriksen had come in just as the bell was ringing and these two had not been left behind.

At every railroad crossing heavy voices died away into silence (by request of the driver). There was little excitement on the way, except that a wreck, police car, and assorted people were clustered around three cars that had collided. This was near a flooded underpass, where the cars were moving very slowly through the deep water.

These short delays made our tourists five minutes late when they drew up in front of the Art Institute at Michigan and Adams. Inside the building there was a surprise. The guide had mistaken a seventh-grade group for the Lincoln-Way students and was conducting them. The astonished receptionist said,

"Wait here while I send your guide." After a few minutes, a charming young lady arrived, issued folding stools, and asked everybody to follow her.

The first stop on the tour was the Greek pottery room, where vases like those in the Latin books are displayed. There were oil and wine jars, once used in international trade, drinking cups, funeral urns, and many other useful kinds of pottery, for the Greek and Roman world did not have cheap metal containers and glass bottles. Next to the pottery room were beautiful glass bottles and necklaces dug out of ruins two or three thousand years old.

Among the paintings which show classical influence are the Byzantine, Italian primitive, Renaissance, and the living painter Picasso's classical period works. Sculptures included Young Sophocles, and copies of The Venus de Milo, the Parthenon frieze, and a Greek lion. The Institute building itself is an example of Roman architecture, and the guide pointed out characteristic columns, arches, and moldings, as well as the lions and decorative details in front of the building.

After a sack lunch in the institute basement, the club members raced up Michigan Boulevard, a few fascinated by the escalators down into Grant Park underground garage and others by the window washers on the new Prudential building.

At the Crerar library everybody took the elevator to the fifteenth floor, to be greeted there by another guide, Roger Martin. He showed the group 4 floors of the buildings, where the rare books, rows of card catalogs, and the thousands of current technical magazines and guides are kept (beyond these are six floors of stacks).

Mr. Martin explained that the Crerar library is a free, endowed library which owns that building and two office buildings next to it (just across from the Chicago public library). Anyone may use the library, which is technical and scientific library as complete as any in the world. It has translators who can take care of twenty-five languages. They furnish information to many Chicago manufacturers as well as to nearly all foreign countries; in fact, Russia is the only Iron Curtain country which has not requested information. One entire floor is devoted to medical science, and many of the rare books are in this group.

Among the library's rare books are a good many Latin, old French, and old German books. One Latin book, just presented by Mr. Ryerson of Chicago, is an original copy of William Harvey's book on the circulation of the blood, published in 1582; it is valued at $3,000. Another Latin book, one of the original copies of Peter Linnaeus' book on classification of species, is unique. It contains Linnaeus' notes for further work on the subject, and there is no other copy like it in the world; booksellers refuse to set a price on it.

Attends Book Fair

Mrs. Martha Welch, librarian at Lincoln-Way, accompanied by her third grade son, Arthur, attended the Miracle of Books at the Museum of Science and Industry last Saturday. This book fair is an annual event jointly sponsored during Book Week by the Children's Book Council, the Chicago TRIBUNE, and the Museum of Science and Industry. Though nothing is sold at the fair, several thousand books are on display which may be examined by the visitors. Titles range from books suitable for pre-school child through those for the more mature teenage reader. In the afternoon outstanding authors of books for children and young people are available for interviews and consultation.

Freshmen Science Officers

The Knights of Science held their election of officers on Nov. 4. Those students elected were Vivienne Eisenbrandt, president; Wayne Klasing, vice president; Ronald Sorrell, treasurer; Ann Hobbs, secretary; and Pat Bradley, reporter. A constitution has been written and accepted by the club.

George Burrow, general science instructor, is the sponsor of the club. This club is open to freshmen science students only.

Carols For Thanksgiving

Mr. Hardy's chemistry class is probably the first class to sing Christmas carols this season. On Tuesday, Nov. 22, while reviewing for a test, Mr. Hardy asked if there were any more questions. Marilyn Cooper requested that they sing Christmas carols to put them in a proper frame of mind. They sang "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer", "White Christmas", "Santa Claus Is Coming to Town", and "Silent Night."

S.R.A. Test

The senior girls of Lincoln-Way will take a knowledge and aptitude test by Science Research Associates on December 6, first period in the cafeteria. This test is sponsored by General Mills, Inc. to select the American Homemaker of Tomorrow. The girl in our school who has the highest score will win a gold pin and a Betty Crocker cook book and will have an opportunity to win state and national honors which include cash prizes and scholarships.

F.H.A. Divides Membership

Because of a large enrollment of 127 girls in the Future Homemakers of America, it was decided to divide into two groups.

The junior-senior group will meet in the gym and the freshman section in the home economics department.

Betty Lichtenwalter acted as chairman of the frosh-soph club as there are no officers as yet. A nominating committee composed of Carol Hohenstein, Sheila Bennett, Darlene Rovenhagen, and Dona Anderson was appointed.

Ventilating the bathroom by opening a window can cause chilly winter bathing. Also, stepping from a warm bath or shower into a cold air draft can cause severe colds. To keep the bathroom comfortable and prevent condensation simply install a dehumidifier or ventilating fan, advises the Plumbing Fixture Manufacturers Association.

Ever hear of a car running into a submarine? The Chicago Motor club says it really happened recently in Detroit. After a woman parked her car on a hill, it rolled downhill and collided with the submarine "Tamber" which was tied up at a dock at the foot of the hill.

"LITTLE BILL" your electric friend, says:

"Hours of entertainment for just pennies!"

Only 3 cents' worth of electricity brings you 4 hours of the best in drama, sports, and comedy on TV.

How Public Service Company keeps your electric bill down (while everything else goes up)

Most things have doubled in price... but not electricity. Although you're using far more of it today, electricity actually costs you less per kilowatt-hour than in 1930.

One way we keep your electric bill low is through continuing research. Our engineers have found many ways of increasing efficiency of all kinds of standard equipment. Recently, for example, they added 15% to the load-carrying capacity of "pipe-type" cable simply by burying the line deeper.

As a result of this constant search for a "better way", today you're getting almost twice as much electricity for your money as you did 25 years ago.
